MUCH WORK

Must Be Done Before Men Are Drafted
—Last District Will Have to Complete Its Work Before Men Are Selected.

Washington, July 5—Arrangements for the next step toward mobilization of the new national army—the exercise of the selection for draft—were taken up tonight at a conference between Secretary Baker and Provost Marshal General Crowder.

Mr. Baker said later he had no announcement to make as to the date of the drawing. It has been announced that the drawing will be held in Washington and it is expected a statement covering the method to be followed will be made in the next few days.

Organization of the local and district exemption boards, the arrangement of the registration lists in serial numbers and other preliminary work must be completed before the selection machinery can be set in motion. A statement by the Public Information committee says this may be done by Saturday, though there is no certainty about it.

Reports current today that selections already had been made probably arose from the fact that many boards have numbered their registration cards and in some cases probably, already are publishing the lists as required by regulations.

The last district will have to complete this work, however, before selection can begin as the administration is determined to leave no loop hole for pugging for the serial number. It is for this reason that public posting of the list and the filing of duplicate copies with the provost marshal general has been required in advance of selection.

The care with which the numbering of the registration cards is being carried out make it certain that the drawing will be based entirely upon the numbers. No names will be involved in the actual process of selection which will closely approximate, it is understood, the jury wheel system.

SIX RECRUITS

Join National Guards Here Yesterday
—Sardis and Mt. Olivet Visited Today.

Six more recruits were added to the Honor Roll here yesterday by Kentucky National Guards. Those who enlisted were: Walter Jones, Clarence Morgan, John Morgan, Jacob Ruggles, William Green and Late Pugh.

Last night an interesting meeting was held at the Court House when Major Denhardt, Third Regiment, and Lieutenant Otto, First Regiment, Aide General Williams' Staff, gave most interesting talks to a packed house. Before the meeting band concerts were given on the streets and on the lawn west of the Court House by the Regimental Band.

Today the hand and several of the officers are at Sardis and Mt. Olivet seeking recruits and tomorrow Flemingsburg will be visited. Major Jones and Lieutenant Otto will remain in camp here today to accept all recruits who may wish to join.

FLUERTY TO PAY $4 A WEEK

The motion of Omer L. Fluerty of this city for a new trial, made by his attorney, Hon. A. D. Cole, was overruled by Judge E. E. Corn of Ironton in the Adams County Common Pleas Court at West Union, Ohio, last week.
A jury recently found Fluerty guilty of non-support of his fourteen-months-old daughter. Sentence was suspended and Fluerty was placed under $500 bond to support the child.
He was ordered to pay $4 a week in advance, the money to be in monthly installments. The child is in the endowment of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Campbell, at Manchester, Oh.

DROWNED MAN IDENTIFIED

The body of a man found in the Ohio river at Neville, Ohio, on Thursday night of last week, has been identified as that of Alonzo Kellum, aged 70, of Cincinnati. Identification was made Friday by his son, Wesley Kellum, with whom he lived in Cincinnati. Kellum fell from the steamer Ohio near Manchester last week. He was on his way to Manchester to visit his sister.

W. T. BERRY FOR COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

When we announce the candidacy of Prof. William T. Berry for School Superintendent of Mason county it seems almost unnecessary for us to say anything as to his qualifications. All of Mr. Berry's life has been spent in educational work and the greater part of it as a teacher in the Mayaville Public Schools. He is energetic, progressive and capable and the people of Mason county will make no mistake in electing him to the office to which he aspires. Mr. Berry is not a public office seeker but feels that he can fulfill the office of County School Superintendent so as to make old Mason keep to the fore as far as its educational institutions and opportunities are concerned, at least. He promises to put forth his best efforts if elected and asks the support of the thinking people of Maysville and Mason county.

SAID THEY ESCAPED FROM INSTI- TUTION

Wilbur Elliott and Joseph Farmer, the two boys who were arrested by Chief of Police Mackey Wednesday afternoon at the dam, confessed that they have just escaped from the Feeble Minded Institution at Frankfort when examined before County Judge W. H. Rice yesterday afternoon. The boys are now being held in the detention ward of the county jail awaiting the arrival of the officers from the state institution.

Preparations are being made for the big carnival which will be given by the local lodge of Elks next week for the benefit of the Mason County Red Cross Society. From present indications the carnival will be one of the most successful held in Maysville for some time, as there were none here last year, and very little doing in the amusement line this summer.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE

The manly friends of Miss Sophia

Mr. Rankholst is a most esteemed young man and is employed at the past five months, and never revealed it until today.

They are now receiving congratulations of their many friends. They will make their future home in Covington.

DRAGGING RUSSIA DOWN

Poor Russia has struggled to her feet again. There is hope once more in the dispatches from Petrograd. The revolution has not "died a-borning." It has passed the first big crisis. But the young giant faces tremendous obstacles, in his fight to keep his old shackles from being divested on again.

The greatest obstacle is Germany. Prussianism, which formerly reigned in Russia under the name of Czarism, is determined that its big neighbor, with his incalculable possibilities, shall not be free. The Kaiser wants no troublesome democracy next door to fill his own people with unsensational notions of liberty.

There is no longer anything to fear from Russian ambition. The lust of conquest passed with the Romanoffs. But to the Hohenzollerns, militarists and junkers of Prussia there is far more peril in a Russian people desiring to live their own life. Free ideals are more aggressive than ambitious emperors. They overleap all boundaries. They are more menacing than armies against royalty, tyranny, aristocracy, militarism and all the vast, entrenched system of error, violence and crime represented today by the German government.

And so Germany is bent on destroying the new Russia. She varies her methods to suit the moment. In the first days of the revolution she sent an invading army swarming across the frontier, hostile emissaries in the guise of friends, to foment trouble, arouse discontent, set faction against faction and lead the revolution to its own destruction. The campaign succeeded so well that hundreds of thousands of German troops were withdrawn from the eastern front to fight the British and French. Russia was being beaten without soldiers.

Recently the face of things has changed. Russian patriots, aided powerfully by the Allies, bolstered by American money and assurances, have restored a semblance of discipline in the army and are getting the government into working shape. It appears that there is hope, after all, for the latest and biggest of democracies. And so Germany begins to mass troops again on her eastern flank and threaten a drive against Petrograd.

Can the Russians meet that thrust? The prayer of America will be with them in their task, and the resources of America will be at their disposal if they can only hold out a little longer.

ICE CREAM

The Inter-Cities Ice-Cream Manufacturers' Association is making a serious effort to impress people far and wide with the fact that ice-cream is not simply a dissipation, but a real food. In some cities it is offering prizes for the best essays on "Why I Eat Ice-Cream?"

Most people don't need much urging to eat the confection for which America is famous, whether at home for dessert or at large in drug-stores, confectioneries and restaurants. And it is a real food, not a frill. And it deserves to be treated as such. In fact, it's an extremely nourishing food, and should be eaten with just the same restrictions applied to any other concentrated form of nourishment.

The two big factors in ice-cream are the milk and the sugar. Milk, while one of the most valuable foods there are, is also the one most subject to contamination from malarial receptacles. All the ice-cream making and serving should be subjected to most rigid inspection by the town's health department. Inspecting the places where it is made and sold once a summer won't do. It must be done every week in order to be effective. This applies, of course, with equal force to any of the summer drinks served at soda fountains.

Sugar is a food of which no ordinary human system can comfortably dispose of more than four ounces (eight tablespoons) per day. This includes all the sugar used in cooking, all that present in fruits and vegetables. If more is taken, digestive disorders result, with consequent irritability of temper. Also, the appetite for other equally necessary foods is destroyed and the balance of the proper daily nutrition upset.

Eat ice-cream by all means. It's a good food and a delightful one. But be sure it's cleanly made and served, don't chill your stomach with too much at once when you're overheated, and don't eat too much on any one day.

France has placed a maximum price on butter, eggs and cheese. In this country the dealers are showing their ability to put a maximum price on everything without assistance from the government.

The simplest way to get those 70,000 recruits for the regular army would be to enlist the services of a party by the name of Roosevelt.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work.
Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspaper and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'Bryan, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

KNITTING CLUB
Ladies of the city and county are requested to meet at an early day, in the Woman's Club house to begin knitting for our soldier boys. All ladies who can knit are asked to bring their needles and assist in teaching those who cannot knit. Needles can be procured at Hoeflich's the Bee Hive and the Art Store. As soon as the yarn comes, which will be furnished, there will be a notice in the papers calling the meeting. We hope our ladies will respond nobly.

MISS LUCY LEE.
We commend this to the attention of the good women of this city and county. The time for action is here, and we trust that in the matter of preparing articles for the comfort of the boys on the sea and in the trenches Mason county will maintain her reputation and do more than she is called on to do. In this we have no fear, judging from the splendid women who are interesting themselves in the work.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Halls' Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the ear.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Halls' Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, etc.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER
By Our Special Correspondent

Huge Dye Firm Gets Charter

The National Aniline & Chemical Company has been chartered at Albany, N. Y., with 200,000 shares of 7 per cent preferred stock of $100 par value, and 350,000 shares of common without par value. The avowed purpose of the company is to supply all American dyeing requirements, and the capacity will be more than 30,000,000 pounds per annum. Here is a wonderful example of the opportunities which the war has afforded by cutting off foreign competition. The Republicans, when in power, afford a similar opportunity, without a resort to bloodshed, by adopting the protective tariff policy.

Because the textile people and other users of dyes could not get into agreement with capitalists who wished to build up a dye industry in this country, the Republican party was prevented from enacting rates of duty which would afford this industry adequate protection from the cutthroat competition of Germany. Our dye-users, whose power was great and deviously used, effectually blocked all attempts to put the dye industry on a protective basis. They did this because they could purchase from Germany at lower prices, and Germany was using this market as a dumping place whenever it appeared that a dye industry was about to develop here. Then the war came along, and our dye-users found that they could not get dyes from Germany in any amount, and that our dye-manufacturers had been put out of business because protection was denied them. The price of dyestuffs soared to heights never dreamed of, and, as the Congressional expert on the dyestuff situation, Hon. E. J. Hill, remarked when the present tariff law was amended by placing a duty on dyes: "If every penny of the special duty which it is now proposed to add to the revenue rates of the present law should be added to the price to the consumer, it would take one hundred years of that burden to equal the losses which the existing famine has brought upon this country in the last twelve months."

The Democrats hemmed and hawed and haggled over the proposition to put protective rates on dyes in 1916, and having at length committed themselves to the policy in this instance, boggled the whole thing by levying rates which pleased nobody, and which will have to be amended very soon after peace comes. But the war is giving the industry a chance to sprout and wax strong and with the Republicans in control of Congress in 1919 the dye industry will get the treatment it deserves—from the National legislature at least. Users of dyes have long ago discovered their mistake. They do not want another experience like that of 1916.

Defining a Retailer Congressman Frank D. Scott of Michigan has the distinction of offering one of the most important amendments which the House adopted to the food bill. It defined the word "retailer" to be a "person, copartnership, firm, corporation, or association not engaging in the wholesale business, whose gross sales do not exceed $100,000 per annum." As originally drawn Mr. Scott placed the figure at $50,000, but after consultation with his Republican colleagues it was raised to the amount finally agreed upon. The effect of the amendment is to make the restrictions of the bill apply to all dealers who do a gross annual business of more than $100,000, whether they call themselves "retailers" or not.

Watchmen Wanted
The talk of adjourning Congress is beside the mark. Congress should not adjourn at all. If it does anything, it should take recesses to a given day; so that its ressembling shall not be dependent upon Presidential favor. Congress might adjourn, however, if it could make sure of leaving some sort of locum tenens on the ground at Washington. With the establishment of the joint committee on the conduct of the war, as proposed by the Week-Madden resolution, Congress would have authorized representatives constantly on duty at Washington. This does not of necessity imply distrust of the President; but it does indicate a feeling that the President's chosen subordinates are not all that they should be.

A Dilatory Liquidator
A number of small manufacturers are said to have shied away from Government business because the Government is such "slow pay." A good deal of their manufacturing business is done on sales with payments made in from 10 to 20 days after delivery thereby enabling the owner to keep his payrolls good and also pay his raw material bills as they come due. But they find they can not do business this way with the present administration. This calls to mind the fact that the Secretary of the Treasury has made a practice to hold up payments due to contractors which had carried out their contracts with the Government until after the close of the fiscal year—June 30th—in order that the Treasury books as closed on that day would not show a deficit quite so enormous.

May A Record Month
The Department of Commerce in its foreign trade figures for May announces impressively, "Imports for May were valued at $281,000,000, the greatest total for any one month in the history of American commerce." The customs receipts for that month amounted to $28,660,000, or an average rate of 10 per cent. During the month of May, 1913, under a protective tariff, we imported $133,700,000 worth of commodities, which produced a revenue of $20,435,000, or an average rate of 15.3 per cent. Imports for the 1917 month were over 100 per cent greater than for the 1913 month, but duties were but $8,000,000 greater. Seventy-one per cent of the May, 1917, goods came in free, compared with 51.6 per cent for May, 1913. That gives some idea of what the present tariff law is costing us.

Slaughter Slackers
There is much wisdom in the suggestion that slaughter of milch cows and of hens should be restricted, and yet it is difficult to control such matters by law. There is no great loss in the slaughter of a cow that consumes $12 worth of feed in the production of $10 worth of milk. Even if used for breeding purposes, such a cow might not produce a calf that would be any better as a dairy animal. Neither is there any loss in the slaughter of a hen that consumes $6 worth of feed in the production of $5 worth of eggs. As a general principle, female animals should not be slaughtered as long as they are valuable for breeding purposes, but a general law prescribing that rule would work injury and hardship in a great many instances. The best policy is one of education with the purpose of inducing the owner to weigh relative values carefully before consigning any animal to slaughter.

A Royal Immune

When the Southern Democrats who control Congress add cotton to the list of necessary farm products which must be produced and marketed under government supervision they will present to the country some proof of shrewdness in their pretensions of the imperative need of food control as proposed by the Lever bill. In the matter of raising revenue the South has resisted with success every attempt to levy any sort of a tax upon its staple crop; and it will probably have equal success in keeping cotton out of Mr. Hoover's hands. Yet cotton is a "non-perishable" product of which the Lever bill treats so extensively; and it is a fundamental necessity in domestic economy. But a Southern majority in Congress refuses to bring cotton under any sort of regulatory or contributory relations to the general government. Cotton is still king and enjoying the isolation and immunity of royalty.

Republicans Want Planes

The most effective weapon against the submarine of which there is general knowledge is the aeroplane; the most effective of scouts for artillery and infantry operating in trenches or in the field is the aeroplane. The United States produced the first practical aeroplane—just as we produced the first practical submarine—but in both cases European nations outstripped us in the development and use of these weapons. It is now proposed that Congress provide a billion dollars for aeroplane construction. The Republicans in both House and Senate, speaking through Senator Weeks and Representative Kahn of the military committee in either branch, are heartily supporting the plan. The Democrats have not made their position known. The chances are that here again it will be Republicans who will "stand by the President" and take the steps necessary to give the army these indispensable craft.

Secret Handed to the Huns

From Washington comes a story—vouched for by one of the most reliable of the corps of correspondents at the capital—to the effect that Germany is in possession of the complete specifications for the construction of the American navy range-finder. This instrument, admittedly the most perfect in the world, was formerly manufactured in strict secrecy in this country, conditions which naturally were somewhat costly. So, when the present administration began to apply its save-at-the-spligot-and-waste-at-the-bumhole policy, it was thought best to let the contract for range-finders by competitive bidding—not only among the instrument makers of this country but of Germany as well. The specifications were sent to German bidders, who failed to qualify, and who failed also to return the specifications. Their excuse was that the German admiralty had not finished with them! Meantime the war has come on; and it is not to be supposed that the House are so scrupulous that they have failed to take advantage of the American specifications to provide themselves with the world's best range-finder. Here is something which Congress might profitably inquire into.

The price of military riding boots, made of leather, has climbed to $22.50 a pair, which is an added incentive to an American army officer to die with his boots on.

ENDORSED AT HOME
Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Maysville Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Maysville adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

Frank Taylor, Prop. barber shop, 401 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "A few months ago, I had a slight attack of kidney trouble and my kidneys were irregular in action. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and then again, were scanty and highly colored. I had a dull, steady ache through the small of my back and my back was weak. Four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Chanslor's Drug Store, cured me of the complaint."

Mr. Taylor is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mr. Taylor—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores. ### PREDICTS SUGAR SHORTAGE Paducah, Ky., July 5.—At the special request of the United States Government a force of civil engineers, including Henry Pulliam, of Paducah, will remain in Santo Domingo, Haiti. The engineers were sent to the island by a New York firm, and have been there several months surveying sugar plantations. The presence of the engineers is essential, Mr. Pulliam said in a letter to his father, Dr. S. B. Pulliam, because the impending sugar shortage in this country demands the utmost development of Haiti's sugar resources. Several weeks ago trouble with native bandits resulted in Stanley Miller and another Paducah engineer being murdered and several members of the corps left the island for the United States.

Another district comprises the counties of the Eastern Kentucky Federal Court district, the remaining district comprising the rest of the counties in the State.

MORE MEN WANTED AT TRAINING CAMP

Washington, July 5.—Convinced the many desirable men are holding back their application for the second officer training camp because of a misconception of the requirements, Adjutant General McCain issued a statement tonight making it clear that "intelligent and forceful" men are wanted even if they are under thirty-one years of age without military training.

The previous statement of the war department that it will be difficult for men within the draft age or without military experience to gain admission to the camps, has resulted, officials believe in an impression that applications from such men will not be considered. On the contrary, it is pointed out those of demonstrated executive ability in civilian pursuits, ranging in age from 25 upward, are a type earnestly desired.
